Marketing Statement

As part of community life at UUM-IS, students, teachers and parents are often filmed and photographed as they participate in activities and events around campus. Some of these images and videos will be used in school publications both internal and external or on the school's website. By signing and submitting this application you explicitly accept that the school might use photo and video of your student in this manner. However, should the Marketing Department wish to include your student as the feature model on an advertising campaign, you will be contacted to give explicit permission for use at that time.

Permission to Release School Records

By signing this application, you grant UUM International School express permission to collect school records and related information and/or follow-up with any and all previously attended schools listed on this form.
